

... WILLIAMS ... BOOT AND SHOE REPAIR SHOP

JAMES HUGHES, Prop.

All Kinds of Repair Work neatly and promptly done

Cor. 1st St. and Williams Ave., Williams, Ariz.

LOCALS.

Engineer J. B. Girand was a business visitor in Jerome the first of the week.

Mr. Geo. Grose, the Spring valley ranchman, was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Engineer R. J. Arey is having an additional room built to his already neat and complete home.

J. C. Phelan has his new building completed and will be doing business in the same today.

Attention is called to the new "ad" in this issue of Geo. W. Mathews the enterprising proprietor of the Cheap John Racket.

FOR SALE—Furniture for a four-room house; everything complete. House for rent; electric lights and water. Inquire at News office.

Charles and Mamie Donahue, of Winslow, visited in the city with their cousin, Miss Phelan, last Tuesday. They were on their way to California and resumed their journey Wednesday.

The enrollment of the Flagstaff Normal school shows forty pupils and the term is only two weeks old. The school is growing and it will soon be the most popular one in the territory.—Flagstaff Gem.

Effective Sept. 20 the Grand Canyon railway will change time. The passenger train for the canyon will leave Williams at 7 p. m., arriving at the canyon at 10 p. m. Leave canyon at 8:30 a. m., arrive at Williams at 11:20 a. m.

Mr. and Mrs. George G. Wharton were most pleasantly surprised at the depot Wednesday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carlisle, of Kansas City, alighted from the train and greeted them. Mrs. Carlisle is a niece of Mrs. Wharton. They were returning home after a pleasant outing in California.

Mr. M. Salzman this week received a most excellent photograph of his son, Maurice, who is now attending St. Mathew's Military school at San Mateo, California. Maurice looks every inch a soldier and has proved that he is well able to cope with the stringent examinations of the school, having been assigned to the class of '03. Congratulations, Maurice.

Eb. Greenlaw, of Flagstaff, came down from the Skylight city yesterday.

Dr. Adams, of Albuquerque, was the guest of Mrs. Schollenberger on Wednesday.

Deputy Sheriff Robert Walker was a visitor in the city from Flagstaff yesterday.

Mrs. McCannon visited in this city, with Mrs. Geo. McKim, the first of the week.

The Ladies Aid society cleared over forty dollars at their supper Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Harry Rawlin is building a two-room addition to her residence near the Town Spring.

Messrs. Mason and Kennedy, of the box factory, are spending a week at the Grand Canyon.

Mrs. J. H. Schollenberger left for Los Angeles Thursday afternoon. She will spend several weeks there.

J. B. Girand and Will Lockridge left Thursday for Howard's Springs where they will survey some land.

Mr. Hammond Garland, the noted writer, and his wife, spent the past week at the Grand Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parsons have moved into the house lately occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Schollenberger.

It is reported that Sid Cornish, of Flagstaff, well and favorably known here, died yesterday at his home of consumption.

Constable Tom Andrews has moved into the house, just south of the Methodist church, owned by William Crowell.

Mrs. Geo. W. Mathews, who has been on a visit with home folks in "Sunny Tennessee," is expected to return the coming week.

Engineer F. B. Jacobs and family leave today for Phoenix, Mr. Jacobs having finished his work on the government survey in this section.

Attorney Jas Loy, of Flagstaff, was a visitor in the city yesterday. Mr. Loy expects soon to leave for southern Arizona, where he will locate permanently.

Mrs. August Lindstrom, wife of the genial manager of the Saginaw Southern railroad, and her daughter, Leona, left for Los Angeles last Monday. Mrs. Lindstrom will spend the winter in that city while her daughter attends the Southern California University.

First Store Built and Occupied After the Fire ❀ ❀ ❀ Little Brick on the Corner

Mountain-grown Apples
Mountain-grown Tomatoes
Mountain-grown Cucumbers
20 pounds for $1.00

Also Grapes, Peaches and
Plums 3 pounds for 2 bits

CHEAP JOHN RACKET

S. H. REA

Building Contractor

ESTIMATES FURNISHED
ALL WORK FIRST-CLASS

I SOLICIT YOUR BUSINESS

WILLIAMS, ARIZ.

CHEAP EXCURSIONS

.....TO.....

ALBUQUERQUE FAIR

OCTOBER 15 to 19

TICKETS GOOD RETURNING UNTIL OCTOBER 21

Full information on application to AGENT of the Attention !

In order to increase our subscription list, we will offer as a premium to all new cash subscribers, THE WILLIAMS NEWS from now to January 1, 1903, for the regular price of $3.00.

THE WILLIAMS NEWS

Sunday Meetings.

The regular meetings will be held at the Methodist church tomorrow. Sunday-school at 9:45 a. m. Preaching services at 11 a. m., and 8 p. m. The pastor's morning subject will be "Men Ought Always to Pray." Evening subject, "The Futility of Force," or "They That Use the Sword Shall Perish by the Sword." Everyone will be cordially welcome at all these meetings.

W. C. GEYER, Pastor.

A. T. Cornish, of Flagstaff, was a visitor in the city last Sunday.